

How much does a Nubia Z70 ultra cost?

The Nubia Z70 Ultra continues the brand's formula of leading power, strong photography, and exemplary battery life for much less money than you might expect to pay. Design and software issues hold it back, while the lack of wireless charging is an issue, but the Nubia Z70 Ultra is a dark horse contender in the not-quite-flagship field. From $729

Will Nubia Z60 ultra be a leading version?

nubia has done a little facelift on the Z60 Ultra, treating us to a new 'Leading Version' of the high-end model. This new nubia Z60 Ultra Leading comes with only minor changes in the specs sheet and we expect it to eventually replace the 'regular' nubia Z60 Ultra on the market as soon as stock of the latter runs out.

Is the Nubia Z70 ultra fast charging?

Unlike a lot of other fast-charging smartphones, Nubia is doing USB-C to USB-C instead of USB-A for fast charging, which is safer and more universal, too. It's a very unique-looking phone, and one that has really grown on me over my time with the phone. To put things simply, the display on the Nubia Z70 Ultra is incredibly looking.

Is Nubia a good phone?

Yes, it's an improvement over the woeful Nubia Z60 Ultra, but it still falls behind many phones selling for half the money. Some of Nubia's camera UI decisions are also annoying. The beautification effect is on by default, and lends that fake smoothed-out effect to human skin.

Does the Nubia Z70 Ultra have Android 15?

The Nubia Z70 Ultra comes with Nubia AIOS which is running on Android 15. So it is the latest version of Android, thankfully, however the downside here is that Nubia is only promising "up to three years of updates" which is unfortunate. As it is not guaranteeing a certain amount of updates, only up to three years.

Is the Nubia Z70 ultra better than the redmagic 10 Pro?

The Z70 Ultra's screen is better in every way Nubia has also taken its screen refresh rate to the next level, from 120Hz to 144Hz. Those familiar with Nubia's gaming phone work won't be surprised by this, as this is exactly the same component as the Redmagic 10 Pro.
